ATLANTIAN REPORTED WOUNDED BY INDIANS OUT IN MEXICO

Zales, make no mention of the killing of William Stocker, reported to have lost his life in the American colony under attack by Yaqui Indians south of Guaymas, but report the death of John Wilson and W. A. Fay and place another American, J. J. Donovan, among the missing.

A later dispatch from Nogales said Stocker had been wounded, but did not indicate whether he had died. Stocker, it is said, was a prominent ranchman.

Yaqui Indians Attack Americans in Mexico

NOGALES, SONORA, May 14.—With 500 Mexican soldiers and a band of armed Americans reported as trying to rescue them, a colony of sixty-five Americans, including women and children, were striving today to fight off Yaqui Indians from their homes near Esperanza, south of Guaymas. Their situation was reported as critical.

Governor Mastorena's relief troops are proceeding to the aid of the Americans with difficulty, as the railroad is only partly repaired.

Several Americans have reported killing in the fighting.

U. S. Warship Ordered to Aid American Colony

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—The navy department, according to a message received here today, has instructed Admiral Howard to send a warship to Toluca, Mexico, to succor the American colony at Esperanza, which has been attacked by Yaqui Indians.

COUNTIES GET PART OF SCHOOL LANDS

Governor Slaton on Friday afternoon authorized the drawing of a treasury warrant for $114,744, the sum to be paid to those counties which carried a balance of their 1914 school appropriations over into this year. Some of these counties several weeks ago applied for portions of the balances, but owing to the delayed payment of state taxes the state has heretofore been unable to pay them. Hence 1914 balances left in the treasury subject to the call of the counties will aggregate approximately $150,000, as soon as possible the remainder of them will be paid. It is expected that it will be late in the fall, probably as late as December, before the state will make the first payment on its 1915 school appropriation.

U. S. SUIT AGAINST N. O. FIRM DISMISSED

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, May 14.—An order dismissing the government's Sherman law suit against the firm of Ponick & Ford, of New Orleans, manufacturers of molasses and table syrups, was issued by Federal Judge Mayer today with the consent of the government attorneys.

The firm, with the Corn Products Refining company and kindred enterprises, was alleged to be a part of the molasses glucose trust which the government is seeking to dissolve.

BAPTISTS AT HOUSTON HONOR DR. C. W. DANIEL

Atlanta Minister Designated to Preach Next Convention Sermon at Asheville
BY ALEX. W. BRADLEY.
HOUSTON, Tex., May 14.—An honor was conferred today on the Baptists of Atlanta, when the Southern convention adopted the report of the convention on time, place and preacher. Dr. C. W. Daniel, of Atlanta, was designated to preach the next convention sermon, with Dr. S. J. Porter, of San Antonio, Tex., as his alternate, Asheville, N. C., is the next place of meeting, and the time May 17, a week later than at present.
Dr. Lansing Burrows, president of the convention, refused to let the body be drawn into a controversy over the Panama-Philippine movement. The day after the matter came before the convention Dr. Burrows received a telegram from J. H. Jennings, Dallas, vice president of the Panama-Philippine union, referring him to a Bible verse, in which Gamaliel, an old-time teacher, advised the Pharisees to let the disciples alone, as their work would come to nothing if it was of men but if God was behind it nothing could overcome it.
Dr. Burrows when asked what reply he would make, said: "I can make no official reply unless authorized by the convention."
The matter may come up in the report of the Sunday school board on Saturday.
The report of the committee on apportionment of funds to be raised during the coming year for each state for home and foreign missions was presented and adopted.
It asked of the southern states a total of $441,750 for home missions; and $24,000 for foreign missions.
Rev. W. N. Quisenberry, of Clinton, Miss., offered a substitute to the report, which provided a total apportionment of $5,148,210 for foreign missions next year.
The author of the substitute, in speaking for its adoption, declared it would represent only 1 cent per day during the year from the reported membership of the Southern Baptist convention. The substitute was ruled out of order on parliamentary grounds.
The apportionment as adopted follows:
For home missions—Alabama, $36,000; Arkansas, $11,000; District of Columbia, $2,000; Florida, $8,000; Georgia, $51,000; Illinois, $4,000; Kentucky, $15,000; Louisiana, $12,000; Maryland, $9,000; Mississippi, $25,000; Missouri, $10,000; North Carolina, $37,000; New Mexico, $2,500; Oklahoma, $10,000; South Carolina, $28,000; Tennessee, $25,000; Texas, $38,000; Virginia, $42,000.
For foreign missions—Alabama, $4,000; Arkansas, $1,000; District of Columbia, $4,000; Florida, $2,500; Georgia, $15,000; Illinois, $1,000; Kentucky, $2,500; Louisiana, $12,000; Maryland, $12,000; Mississippi, $25,000; Missouri, $25,000; North Carolina, $45,000; New Mexico, $1,750; Oklahoma, $10,000; South Carolina, $18,000; Tennessee, $18,000; Texas, $18,000; Virginia, $17,000; miscellaneous, $10,000.
The statistical report of Dr. Lansing Burrows already made public then was adopted.

Girl of 3 Dies After Drinking Fly Poison

In Play at Rockmart
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
ROCKMART, Ga., May 14.—After drinking a cup of fly poison with which she was playing, little Louise Sherrill, three years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sherrill, of Rockmart, died Thursday afternoon.
The little girl found a "fly killer" in the shape of a cup containing a solution of arsenic; she took the apparatus out in the yard and played "afternoon tea" with it and her dolls, making the play realistic, she drank the "tea." Four hours later she died despite efforts of physicians.
Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill are proprietors of the Bullough hotel.

OSTEOPATHS OF SOUTH IN SESSION AT CORDELE

Feature of Opening Session Is Addressed by Dr. Louis A. Burns of Still Institute
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
CORDELE, Ga., May 14.—The largest osteopathic association convention ever held in the south is now in session at Cordelle with about seventy-five osteopaths in attendance from all sections of the country. Dr. J. W. Elliott, of Cordelle, is president and Dr. Otto H. Grise, of Atlanta, is the secretary. At the opening of the morning session, Rev. Walter Anthony gave the invocation, and Mayor Gordon Jones delivered the welcome address on behalf of the city. The response was made by Dr. F. Jones, Macon. President Elliott's address was received with much applause.
The feature of the morning session was the splendid address of Dr. Louis A. Burns of the A. F. Still Research Institute of Chicago, on the "practical applications of research experiments." Dr. Burns said, "Osteopathic treatment is of much value in treating typhoid, beriberi and blood diseases. Osteopathic lessons in lower dorsal regions liberate the resisting powers of the unfortunate patients and that the correction of these lesions enables the patient to acquire immunity. Laboratory experiments have proven this beyond a doubt."
Dr. Burns' further stated that the laboratory has proven also that displaced vertebrae and ribs produce a secondary anemia, interfering with the organs that produce the red blood cells. There will be a banquet at the Seawave house tonight and 150 guests have been invited.

Hints on Embroidery

By Kathryn Mutterer

(OF THE EMBROIDERY DEPT. PICTORIAL REVIEW)

A Lovely Centerpiece That Works Up Quickly

There is the greatest demand for household lines of distinctive design that will work up quickly. A piece may be ever so beautiful, but unless the design is of such a nature that the embroiderer feels that she can finish it before it grows wearisome, it will not be a success from any standpoint.
A model that meets the approval of every needleworker, and is within the capabilities of the most inexperienced embroiderer, is shown on a centerpiece that looks well either in white or colored linen. The pattern is composed of a wreath which enclosed a diamond-shaped design and finished with bow-knots entwined with a simple floral design. A bit of lace applique can replace the diamond-shaped design, if preferred.

ferred, but as this can be outlined in outline, the stitches forming little bars about one-quarter of an inch apart. In the center of each bar is a satin dot or eyelid. The leaves and petals of the floral design may be developed either in outline stitches with eyeletted centers or in solid embroidery.

The ideal size for a centerpiece of this kind is about 34 inches in diameter, for it is right suitable for a library or dining room table. It can be neatly finished with a wide border of good, though not necessarily expensive quality.

For the dining room there is nothing more refined than all-white or a white background with the embroidery in a color that corresponds with the furniture and decorations of the room. If made for use in the library or living room, however, heavy cream Moline cloth could be employed to advantage. The flowers could be done in brown thread, the leaves in green and the conventionalized designs in deep blue.
A border to be really serviceable should be selected with a view to being used for several different articles. The design illustrated here is as appropriate for a runner or scarf as for a centerpiece.
The embroidery pattern illustrated and described herein, together with 400 others, covering all possible uses, are included in the "Innovation Embroidery Pattern Outfit" now being presented by this newspaper, as explained elsewhere in these columns.
It can also be used to excellent advantage for one of the large round pillows that are so fashionable this season.
Bulgarian linen is an excellent material to use when making this border for a pillow.

WORLD'S LARGEST STRAW HAT AD. PUBLISHED IN TODAY'S ATLANTA JOURNAL

What is believed to be the largest exclusive straw hat advertisement ever published is the full double-page advertisement of the Goodyear Raincoat Company, advertising its straw hats exclusively, in this afternoon's Atlanta Journal. The Goodyear people have decided to make tomorrow (Saturday) the banner straw hat day in the entire country, and for that day they have cut prices to the limit for tomorrow. More than a score of the expert straw hat salesmen have been engaged for the Goodyear stores on Peachtree street, so that customers may be waited on promptly. The advertisement speaks for itself—it is probably the world's largest straw hat advertisement, advertising the greatest sale of straw hats the country has ever witnessed. (Adv't.)

SLATON RETURNS FROM VISIT TO NEW YORK

Governor Had No Comment to Make on President Wilson's Note to Germany

Governor Slaton, who returned to Atlanta Thursday afternoon from a several days' trip to New York, stated Friday that the three subjects which just now were engaging the attention of New Yorkers were the sinking of the Lusitania, the Roosevelt-Barnes controversy and the "Praxis" case.
Governor Slaton had no comment to make on President Wilson's note to Germany. Up to 1 o'clock Friday afternoon he had not, he said found time to read the note and until he had done so he would not be in position to express any views concerning it.
The governor said that the situation was a very serious and delicate one, and before he had anything to say he wished to read the president's note and give careful and thoughtful attention to it. He did express himself, however, as feeling that the situation demanded calm, conservative action on the part of the American government with a view to avoiding war if it was possible to do so.

SATURDAY TO BE BIG DAY AT THE GLOBE

Tomorrow will be the banner day of the big Factory Commodity Sale being conducted by the Globe Clothing Company, on Whitehall street, and for the purpose of announcing the wonderful values to be had at this popular store tomorrow, full page advertisement is published in today's Atlanta Journal.
The Globe has conducted many a big popular-priced event before, but never one that has attracted such attention as this big Factory Commodity Sale, attracting the men and young men of the city.
The Globe is actually giving the values advertised, and they are flocking to the Globe to buy the all-wool summer suits that they had planned to buy—and they are buying them at the above values.
It would have cost them had it not been for this sale. Let tomorrow be your day at The Globe.

Why They're So Popular

Hanovers have the happy faculty of making friends of all the feet they meet. They are so hospitable and kind, especially to the toes, so pleasing in appearance and style, so well-fitted and durable that most wearers consider the shoe question solved for life.

It's an undisputed fact that Hanovers are the most comfortable shoes made. That's what has made them the best-known and most worn $3.00 and $3.50 shoes on earth. Of course, they've got style and wear unusually long and sell at popular prices, but their remarkable comfort-giving qualities is the chief reason for their wonderful popularity.

But there would be no Hanover Shoe if it had to be marketed in the ordinary way with profits for three or four middlemen. Our Make-to-Wear system, with one modest profit, big sales, economical methods and business-like practices, make this world-beater possible.

Association Adopts Resolution Praising President Wilson at Final Session

With the adoption of a resolution praising President Woodrow Wilson and the election of officers and directors for the ensuing year, the annual convention of the Southern Wholesale Grocers association came to a close Friday at 12 o'clock.

J. M. McLaurin, of Jacksonville, was selected president of the association and his salary fixed at $5,000 per year. He has held the office six years and devotes his entire time thereto, being paid a salary of $5,000 per year. The association Friday raised his salary to $5,000 per year, but he declined to accept it and declared he would not serve if the association insisted on the increase, giving as his reason the state-ment that the association's program is now handicapped for lack of funds. The increase accordingly was withdrawn and his salary fixed at $5,000.

Other officers elected were as follows:
First Vice President—E. L. Adams, of Atlanta.
Second Vice President—Max Mayer, of Little Rock, Ark.

AUTOISTS WILL BLAZE

TRAIL FOR STATE TOUR

Party Leaves to Arouse Interest Among North Georgia Auto Owners

To arouse the interest of north Georgia autoists in the "Seeing Georgia" tour May 22-27, a party of Atlantians left the city Thursday morning for a motor trip to Marietta, Kennesaw, Carverville and Marietta.

In the party were Charles J. Haden, president of the Georgia chamber of commerce, under the auspices of which the tour will be held; E. L. Gentry, V. P. Parkhurst, B. L. Crew and John Murray. Mr. Gentry had telephoned the autists along their route and arranged for them to meet them and get the literature boosting the tour. Mr. Murray, an expert bugler, heralded the approach of the cars. The automobiles were donated by the Studebaker corporation.

A few days another boasting trip will be made up the Louisville and Nashville road and up the Southern road. It is hoped that every autoist in north Georgia interested in the tour. Already over sixty entries have been received at the office of the Georgia chamber here and at least a hundred are expected before the tour closes. The tour leaves Atlanta May 22, going by way of Newnan, La Grange, Columbus, Americus, Albany and Moultrie to Guntown, where the return will be through Valdosta, Tifton, Gordon, Vienna, Marshallville, Fort Valley, Macon, Forsyth and Barnsville back to Atlanta.

The Serv-us jobbers, about seventy-five strong, held the opening session of a two-day convention in the Ansley hotel Friday morning.

The Serv-us jobbers are the wholesale grocers throughout the United States who handle the Serv-us line of pure food products, comprising a wide variety of articles of household use. George Levin, of New York City, president of the Serv-us Pure Food company, is here and is presiding at the deliberations of the convention. Among the prominent members from a distance who are attending the convention are J. R. Frazer, of Little Rock, Ark., president of the United Workers; Tim W. Whitburn, of Fort Worth, Tex.; Robert Burns, of Philadelphia, ex-president of the Tri-State Grocers' association; B. M. Schumacher, of Houston, Tex., president of the chamber of commerce of that city; and S. M. Flickinger, of Buffalo, N. Y.

More than a hundred jobbers are expected to attend the convention, the concluding session. The Serv-us jobbers are meeting here in connection with the convention of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' association. Many of them are members of the latter organization.

associate membership in the association and invited a discussion. Some opposed it on the ground that certain brokers in their territory sold to retailers. Others opposed it on the ground that wholesale grocers are customers of brokers. The matter was referred to the executive board with instructions to make full recommendations on associate membership for brokers and other associate memberships to the next annual convention.

FOUR CITIES WANT MEET.
Invitations were received from Memphis, Hot Springs, Galveston and New Orleans for the next annual convention. A selection will be made by the executive board in the interim.

The morning session Friday opened with an address by W. A. Graham Clarke, commercial agent of the United States department of commerce, on the general subject of the relation of the department to the wholesale grocer. He urged the grocers to pay more attention to the opportunities of exporting southern food products and outlined to them in detail the various ways in which the department can be of assistance to them along this line. He said the department is the most complete and efficient organization for collecting commercial information that there is in the world. It covers all countries and issues a daily newspaper full of valuable facts. Mr. Clarke's address was received with interest and he was warmly applauded.

Following the adjournment of the convention, the grocers took special trolley cars at 1 o'clock for the Cold Springs cove club, where they were tendered a barbecue by the local entertainment committee.

Part of Note Sent German Mr. Wilson

THE full text of President Wilson's note to Germany was made public last night by the state department as follows:

"Department of State, Washington, May 13, 1915. The secretary of state to the American ambassador at Berlin."

"Please call on the minister of foreign affairs, and, after reading to him this communication, leave with him a copy."

In view of recent acts of the German authorities in violation of American rights in the high seas, which culminated in the torpedoing and sinking of the British steamship, Lusitania, on May 7, 1915, by which over 100 American citizens lost their lives, it is clearly wise and desirable that the government of the United States and the imperial German government should come to a clear and full understanding as to the grave situation which has resulted.

ACTS CONTRARY TO MODERN WARFARE.

"Recalling the humane and enlightened attitude hitherto assumed by the imperial German government in matters of international rights and peacefully with regard to the freedom of the seas; having learned to recognize the German views and German influence on the field of international obligations as always emanated from the side of justice and humanity; and having understood the instructions of the imperial German government to its naval commanders to be upon the same plane of humane action prescribed by the naval codes of other nations, the government of the United States was loath to believe that these acts, so absolutely contrary to the practice, and the spirit of modern warfare, could have emanated from the side of justice and humanity. It feels it to be its duty, therefore, to address the imperial government concerning them with the utmost frankness and in the sincerest hope that it is not mistaken in expecting action on the part of the imperial German government which will correct the unfortunate impressions which have been created, and vindicate once more the position of that government with regard to the sacred freedom of the seas."

VIOLATION OF UNWRITTEN LAWS.

"The government of the United States has been apprised that the imperial German government considered themselves to be obliged by the extraordinary circumstances of the present war and the measures adopted by their adversaries in seeking to cut Germany off from all sources of supply to adopt methods of retaliation which go much beyond the ordinary methods of warfare at sea. In the proclamation of a war zone from which they have warned neutral ships to keep away. This government has already taken occasion to inform the imperial German government that it cannot admit the adoption of such measures or such warning of danger to operate as in any degree an abbreviation of the rights of American shipmasters or of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers on merchant ships of belligerent nationality; and that it must hold the imperial German government to a strict accountability for any infringement of those rights. It assumes on the contrary that the imperial German government accept as of course the rule that the lives of non-combatants, whether they be of neutral citizenship or citizens of one of the belligerent nations, at war, can not lawfully be put in jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unarmed merchantman, and recognize also, as all other nations do, the obligation to take the usual precaution of visit and search to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact of belligerent nationality or is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag."

"The government of the United States, therefore, desires to call the attention of the imperial German government with the utmost earnestness to the fact that the objection to their present method of attack against the trade of their enemies lies in the practical impossibility of employing submarines in the destruction of commerce without disregarding those rules of fairness, reason, justice and humanity which all modern opinion regards as imperative. It is practically impossible for the officers of a submarine to visit a merchantman at sea, and examine her papers and cargo."

THE DUTY OF THE SUBMARINE.

"It is practically impossible for them to make a prize of her, and, if they cannot put a prize crew on board of her, they cannot sink her without leaving her crew and all on board of her to the mercy of the sea in her open boats. These facts, it is understood, the imperial German government, given, and in at least two of the cases cited not as much as a warning as was received. Manifestly submarines cannot be used against merchantmen, as the last few weeks have shown, without an inevitable violation of many sacred principles of justice and humanity. American citizens act within their inalienable rights in taking their ships and in traveling wherever their legitimate business calls them upon the high seas, and exercise those rights in what should be the well-justified confidence that their lives will not be endangered by acts done in clear violation of universally acknowledged international obligations, and certainly in the confidence that their own government will sustain them in the exercise of their rights."

WARNING NO EXCUSE FOR NEUMAN ACT.

"There was recently published in the newspapers of the United States, I regret to inform the imperial German government, a formal warning, purporting to come from the imperial German embassy at Washington, addressed to the people of the United States and intimating that any citizen of the United States who exercised his right of free travel upon the sea would do so at his peril if his journey should take him within the zone of the high seas within which the imperial German navy was using submarines against the commerce of Great Britain and France, notwithstanding the respectful protest of his government, the government of the United States. I do not refer to this for the purpose of calling the attention of the imperial German government at this time to the surprising irregularity of a communication from the imperial German embassy at Washington addressed to the people of the United States through the newspaper, but only for the purpose of pointing out that no warning that an unlawful and inhuman act will be committed can possibly be accepted as an excuse or justification for that act or as an abatement of the responsibility for its commission."

"Long acquainted as this government has been with the character of the imperial German government and with the high principles of equity by which they have in the past been actuated and guided, the government of the United States cannot believe that the commanders of the vessels which committed these acts of lawlessness did so under a misapprehension of the orders issued by the imperial German naval authorities. It takes it for granted that, at least within the practical possibilities of every such case, the commanders even of submarines were expected to do nothing that would involve the lives of non-combatants or the safety of neutral ships, even at the cost of falling of their object of capture or destruction."

U. S. WILL PROTECT RIGHTS AT ANY COST.

"It is confidently expected, therefore, that the imperial German government will disavow the acts of which the government of the United States complains, that they will make reparation for any injury which are without measure, and that they will take immediate steps to prevent the recurrence of anything so obvious a subversion of the principles of warfare for which the imperial German government have in the past so wisely and so firmly contended."

"The government and people of the United States look to the imperial German government for prompt and effective action in this vital matter with the greatest confidence because the United States and Germany are bound together not only by special ties of friendship, but also by the explicit stipulations of the treaty of 1828 between the United States and the kingdom of Prussia."

"Expressions of regret and offers of reparation in case of the destruction of neutral ships sunk by mistake, while they may satisfy international obligations, if no loss of life results, cannot justify or excuse a practice, the natural and necessary effect of which is to subject neutral nations and neutral persons to new and immeasurable risks."

"The imperial German government will not expect the government of the United States to omit by word or any second-hand information to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment."

SAMUEL CANDLER DOBBS BIG EMORY CONTRIBUTOR

Vice President of Coca-Cola Co. Will Build Students' Dormitory Costing $50,000

The announcement of Bishop Warren A. Candler at the Emory University Founders' club luncheon Thursday that over $100,000 had already been pledged for the university, and this with the institution, has created a profound impression.

As already announced, Bishop Candler said that Samuel Candler Dobbs had agreed to build a students' dormitory, which would cost $50,000 and very likely more, and Charles Winship had subscribed $25,000.

He made feeling reference to the fact that the late Samuel M. Tuman, who had subscribed $5,000 at the time the university plan was first launched, gave directions just before his death that this amount should be paid. He also mentioned a subscription from the Atlanta conference, as well as subscriptions from various states, and a donation of $2 from a woman who said she hoped it would grow into a much larger amount.

In connection with the announcement of Mr. Dobbs' offer, Bishop Candler said that another man, whose name he did not disclose, would probably make a similar one.

Although Mr. Dobbs is barely in his prime, he is vice president and sales manager of the Coca-Cola company, and is next to Asa G. Candler, who, by directing the force that that organization, which controls not only a national but also an international field.

Mr. Dobbs has a national reputation as an advertising expert, and he has been given recognition by election to the presidency of the National Association of Ad Men's clubs, composed of the leading advertising experts of the country.

Although the plans for the dormitory are still more or less tentative, they call for accommodations for 150 students, and it is Mr. Dobbs' idea that the dormitory shall be as little like the ordinary college dormitory as possible.

ALL COMFORTS OF HOME. Mr. Dobbs said, "which shall have all the comforts of a club at a nominal cost. It will be devoted primarily to those young men of poor families who cannot afford to pay board in decent boarding houses. It is my idea that proper food, light, ventilation and diversion are necessary for good brain work."

Mr. Dobbs was led to this undertaking by his own experience as a poor country boy who could not get a college education because of the expense. He wants to give such young men the advantages that were lacking at that time.

The dormitory will have a lounging room and a modern restaurant. Stress is laid on the restaurant. Instead of hash and the other accessories of a poor boarding house, meals will be served à la carte—a cent for an orange, 2 cents for coffee, and the like, making a whole some breakfast cost not over 18 or 20 cents.

The rooms will be well furnished. There will be rugs for the halls and rooms, and plenty of pictures. There will also be a piano and probably a victrola, for music and pictures, Mr. Dobbs considers, are part of education and home environment.

As in a hospital, there will be free rooms, and rooms for those who can pay. There will be a shower bath on every floor.

Mr. Dobbs plans to supply the restaurant largely with meat, vegetables and fruit from his own farm. In this way not only assuring good food, but also contributing to the upkeep of the dormitory. As to discipline, any sort of discipline on the part of the students will be absolutely barred.

Mr. Dobbs characterizes the dormitory as primarily for the poor youths of Georgia.

Speaking of the university generally, Mr. Dobbs said that the south had undoubtedly been backward in the matter of institutions of this type, and he saw a still greater need of them in the future.

"From information I recently gathered," Mr. Dobbs said, "it will require years and years for Germany to re-establish her supremacy in education."

"Some of the big universities have lost many of their professors in the war, America, and particularly the South and the southeast, must make up for the loss."

Lamar School of Law

emer, be perpetuated in the establishment here of a great law school to be conducted in connection with Emory university.

While the proposal has not reached definite form, it has been discussed among lawyers, and Bishop Candler has already received several letters about it one of which, from Dr. Ivey, proposes that the law school of the south launch the movement.

He suggests that the university already has its school of liberal arts at Oxford, its school of medicine and of theology. It should also have its law school to be known as the Lamar school of law.

Harris County Farmer Arraigned Here for Second Time on Charge of Venue.

Palmer, solicitor of the Columbus superior court, assisted by Frank McLaughlin, of Columbus, and E. A. Stephens, assistant solicitor of the Fulton superior court.

FIVE NEW BUILDINGS PROPOSED FOR SCHOOLS

New Structures Favored for Glenn, Davis, Oakland, Battle Hill and Expo. Mills

The special council committee investigating the needs of the school department is holding daily sessions, endeavoring to complete its report in time for the next session of council.

Recommendations, agreed upon at Thursday night's session of the committee include the replacing of the present Glenn, Davis, Oakland, Battle Hill and Exposition Mills school buildings with new structures, the immediate erection of a four-room annex to the English-Commercial High school, and the beginning as quickly as possible of an entirely new building for that school. The erection of the city's own building to house the Tech High school is urged.

Other recommendations agreed upon already included a scheme of extensive repairs for the Boys' High school and repairs for the Girls' High school. The committee also urges that the city rent the Presbyterian parsonage, which adjoins the Girls' High school and use it for an annex to take care of almost certain congestion next year.

Members of the committee score the school repair department as woefully inefficient, and will urge that council instruct the board of education to make many changes in this branch of the department.

Gradually as the subcommittee reports to the general investigating committee agreements for recommendations to council are being made by the members of the committee.

Alderman Jesse W. Amstutz, one of the members of the committee, states that while the school investigators recognize the imperative need of at least ten entirely new school buildings, that it may confine its report to the conditions of the present buildings, only recommending new structures where the existing buildings are totally inadequate in the opinion of the committee.

Windows of German Cafe Smashed by Rome Mob

(By Associated Press.)

ROME, (Via Paris), May 14.—The meeting of ministers yesterday afternoon was not strictly secret, a cabinet council, according to the Giornale d'Italia.

The ministers met merely to discuss the situation created by popular agitation for war, and to consider questions which will be discussed at the next formal meeting of the cabinet.

The war, continues to spread and the manifestations in the capital are particularly impressive. A crowd of thousands gathered in front of the hotel at which Gabriele d'Annunzio is staying and cheered until the post appeared on a balcony and spoke fervently in favor of war. The crowd then went to the palace of the Queen, where they shouted and acclaimed her wildly.

Pro-war enthusiasts engaged in a brief struggle with neutrals who were holding a meeting in the Place St. Sylvestre. In the clash the windows of a German cafe and in another establishment were broken. Mounted police cleared the square, but the demonstration continued for some time in the central part of the city.

DEATH OF 5 PERSONS FROM WOOD ALCOHOL PROBED BY CORONER

32 McDonough street, near the Southern shops, where Mrs. Mary North, Mrs. Fannie Caldwell and her husband, James Caldwell, were killed.

This was the scene of the tragedy. It is believed that they spent the night there drinking the alcohol, for about 9 o'clock Thursday morning the deadly vapors received an emergency call to this address.

The ambulance reached there soon after John Blount breathed his last. In the meantime John Lynch started walking to the coroner's office.

He stopped in the undertaking establishment of P. J. Bloomfield, on Myrtle street, in the Throver building, and asked for Mr. Bloomfield. The latter was not there, so Lynch walked on to the court house, where he telephoned his brother, Peter Lynch.

"John Blount is dead," Lynch is said to have told his brother. "I'm not dead yet, but I drank some of the same stuff that killed him."

Peter Lynch hastened to the court house and helped take his brother to the Grady hospital. In spite of physicians' efforts, Lynch died there at 8 o'clock Friday morning.

Before this the coroner had called an inquest over the body of John Blount for 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Bloomfield's chapel.

The inquest was called by the coroner, Pat McGill. She was told the inquest had been postponed. She left with Detective Mill, became violently ill shortly afterward and was taken to the Grady, where she died at midnight Thursday.

Mrs. Mary North, her mother, became ill at the undertaker's at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, where she had come to attend the inquest. She died at 7 o'clock Friday morning.

VIEWERS BROTHERS' BODY

Blount's body was called at the undertaker's Thursday morning and viewed by his brother's body. He then went to the court house and, it is said, completed the trial of a case. Late Thursday afternoon he, too, was seized with pain at his home on Georgia avenue and was taken to St. Vincent's infirmary, where he died at 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

All five bodies have been removed to Bloomfield's chapel. The inquest set for Thursday afternoon was postponed to Friday afternoon, but Friday morning, following the other deaths, Coroner Donegan stated that he would have to consult with E. E. Pomeroy, the county attorney, to find out what the law is in such a unique case, before calling another inquest.

Grady physicians hoped to prove by an autopsy on the bodies of Lynch and John Caldwell that death was produced by wood alcohol. They will proceed with the autopsy as soon as permission is obtained from friends of the dead.

Peter and Hugh Lynch, brothers of John Lynch, stated Friday they were satisfied that a mistake had been caused the deaths and that they are willing to refrain from any further investigation. Five detectives are inquiring into the matter, however.

Surviving the two Blounts, are their mother, Mrs. M. Blount, and brother, Gerald Blount, and two sisters, Mrs. Dan Brown and Mrs. John Brown. Their father was the late Mr. M. N. Blount, for years a deputy in the sheriff's office and widely known in courthouse circles.

Surviving John Lynch are four brothers, Peter, Hugh, James and William Lynch.

At the Blount home Mrs. Blount was treated Friday. The ill brother, Gerald Blount, declined to give out any statement beyond declaring that Emmett Blount was not at the house on McDonough street Wednesday evening and they were at a loss to conceive how he could have obtained any of the alcohol.

THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

This man and woman who would like to increase their weight 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a few days and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. If it's a question of how fast you eat or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape-measure will tell them, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first four days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make you fat, mixing with your food. It turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into new ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—preparing it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body to your cells and tissues. It quickens and makes the cells and tissues more active and the body is able to use the new developing pounds and pounds of healthy fat.

Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Jacobs Pharmacy and other leading druggists in Atlanta and vicinity sell it in large bottles—forty tablets in a package—on guarantee of weight increase or money back.

GERMANY'S ANSWER IS EAGERLY AWAITED BY AMERICA TODAY

munication points out that while "expressions of regret and offers of reparations in case of destruction of neutral ships sunk by mistake" may satisfy "international obligations" if no other "life results," they cannot justify of "recuse a practice the natural and necessary effect of which is to subject nations and neutral persons to new and immeasurable risks."

In another portion emphasis is laid on the inability of submarines to exercise the right of visit and search at sea because of practical difficulties making it impossible for them to make a prize of merchantmen since a prize crew could not be put aboard or if taken as a prize the ship could not be sunk without leaving the neutral vessel's crew "to the mercy of the sea in her small boats."

GERMAN "CONCESSIONS"

It was this feature—the application of the rules of naval prize law to the cases of neutral vessels carrying contraband encountered by submarines—which attracted attention when the German circular note to neutrals was first examined. The argument made in the American note today is designed to point out the inadmissibility of that had been reached in some quarters as concessions by Germany in its treatment of neutral merchantmen.

The citation in the note of "the explicit stipulations of the treaty of 1824 between the United States and Prussia" was regarded as important from a point of view. Under that treaty American ships are given the right to unrestricted freedom of the seas in times of war and even if carrying contraband, including munitions of war, the ships or cargoes cannot be confiscated, but may be detained and the cargo "requisitioned," in which event all contraband or non-contraband taken must be paid for, irrespective of its destination.

The People Behind Your Bell Telephone

YOU are perhaps familiar with the local Exchange Manager. You rarely, if ever see the board operator who handles your calls or the trouble-man who protects your service and the cable-men who place the talk tracks underground.

There are a lot of these people, but they are only a few of the many kinds of workers in the great army of 150,000 Bell employees pulling together to maintain the Bell high standard of efficiency, and giving the highest type of service to the American people.

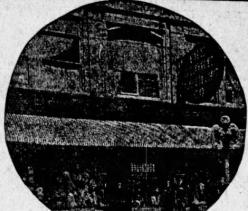

It requires lots of other capable people to furnish efficient service to the subscribers in this city. The intricate mechanism of the extensive system must be kept in perfect order day and night and the service must always be up to the high standard of the universal Bell telephone system.

NEWSPAPERS LAUD WILSON'S NOTE

"President Leaves Little Room for Parley and Nothing but Mouthings Remain for Germany"—Watterson

definiteness with which this presentation is made can satisfy the most rigid Americanism that views large affairs sanely. It seems to meet every requirement of American patriotism and honor.

BUFFALO (N. Y.) EXPRESS: There has been no back down. Let the people's response go out from every corner of the land. We are all Americans.

ALBANY (N. Y.) ARGUS: Dignified in its tone, logical in its arguments and conclusions, firm in its demands, the United States note to Germany, through the pole of the president, Woodrow Wilson, under most trying circumstances.

ALBANY (N. Y.) KNICKERBOCKER PRESS: The note places the issue squarely before Germany for action, and an announcement of future policy acceptable to the United States government, particularly a policy of sea warfare, must not long be delayed.

COLUMBUS (OHIO) STATE JOURNAL: How Germany will promise to protect the lives and property of our people in the future, or in what manner this country will receive her refusal, remains to be seen. It is a grave alternative; and while it is not likely to result in war, it will bring about amity toward Germany that will be full of anxiety.

LOUISVILLE (KY.) COURIER-JOURNAL: The note to Germany meets the requirements, and is such as the government of the United States should address to Berlin. The president leaves little room for parley and none other than mouthings or rupture remains for Germany.

LOUISVILLE ANZEIGER: We agree with the president that the German government must explain the loss of the lives of American passengers, but we do not think that the death of Americans gives the president the right to demand the cessation of Germany's undersea warfare against British commerce so long as England does not abrogate its starvation warfare.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE: Whatever the fate of our relations with Germany, the president undoubtedly voiced the sentiment of the nation upon the use of the submarine and as to the rights of neutrals on the high seas.

CHICAGO HERALD: There is now no possibility of mistaking the position of our government. And it is a position in which the American people will sustain their government in whatever measures may be necessary to uphold it.

INDIANAPOLIS STAR: In many fashions the president's note does not shrink from the logical consequences of his position, but accepts the full significance of his attitude.

ST. PAUL (MINN.) PIONEER PRESS: The American note reached to a wonderful height of forceful diplomacy. A x x x The people will support the president through whatever may be the consequence.

SPRINGFIELD (ILL.) STATE JOURNAL: It is the dignified protest of a nation, which, while feeling that its rights and the rights of other neutrals have been violated is neither vindictive nor resentful.

ST. LOUIS DIE WESTLICHE POST: For the press of the whole country there is at present but one sacred duty, to have nothing undone to avert inner strife. That we Americans of German descent with a bleeding heart condemn the possibility of an armed conflict between the United States and the land of our forefathers, no fair-minded person will condemn us for. There still is hope for an honorable understanding on both sides. May Providence grant that the worst be averted.

ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC: There is not in the note any slightest hint that this government will stop short of the full reparation for the past, and the guarantee of the recognition of the full rights of American citizens in the future.

CINCINNATI COMMERCIAL TRIBUNE: The strength of a just man armed is apparent in the protest sent by President Wilson. This remarkable move, freighted with momentous possibilities, brushes aside all formalities and is frank.

CINCINNATI VOLKSBLATT: The note is disappointing in that it disregards the just complaints of Germany and appears to espouse the cause of Great Britain. We think that the difficulty admits of a satisfactory solution by advising American citizens to travel on American vessels. Unwillingly the president shelters British cowardice, which tries to make British ships immune to German attacks by taking American passengers aboard.

CINCINNATI FREE PRESS: The part of the note dealing with the loss of lives in the Lusitania catastrophe more properly ought to have been directed to London. England alone is responsible for the Lusitania's destruction through her brutal threat to starve a nation. Germany cannot stop the undersea war without surrendering hours and feet to a brutal enemy. We are not obliged and have no right to set up ourselves as the protectors of British shipping.

WASHINGTON POST: The note is framed in moderate language and offers abundant opportunity for the German government to reply in a way that will restore good feeling between the two countries. The question is now up to Germany. It is unnecessary to speculate whether the American note will lead to war or peace, because the issue rests with Germany and not with the United States. The alternative is clearly set forth.

NEW YORK STATE ZEITUNG: While the Staats Zeitung makes no editorial comment today, it has the following to say, printed in English:

Nor is this a time to burden millions of the American people with unjust and unnecessary anguish of mind. The German-Americans must suffer no conflict between the United States and Germany pains of which their fellow citizens can never know anything. It is rather a time for showing them the greatest degree of consideration. They have fought to uphold the flag in the past and they will do so again against any enemy whatsoever. They deserve the fruits of loyal loyalty, and they have forfeited the right to claim them.

HARRIS & TOWING

There has never been but one flag under which the German-American ever fought. There never can be but one flag under which he will ever fight. And that flag is the Stars and Stripes.

MANCHESTER (N. H.) UNION: The United States could not have demanded less than it does in this message. President Wilson's temperate declaration must be backed up if it costs, for every American life already sacrificed, a thousand more of America's best manhood; and for each dollar lost in the sinking of the Lusitania, a million more in treasure.

PHILADELPHIA PUBLIC LEDGER: The administration has spoken and spoken to the point. Will Germany listen to the voice of prudence before it is too late?

CHICAGO JOURNAL: The president's note is even a more admirable and far-reaching document than was indicated by the summary sent out yesterday. It is a solemn notification that engines of war which violate the rights of neutrals, and the principles of humanity cannot be used, no matter how handy some sabre-rattling power might find them.

LOUISVILLE POST: After a week of angry discussion the people know they have a leader whose broad humanity is based on those national instincts which guided the course of the United States from the beginning. There are no neutrals in America now. We are all earnest supporters of the president, by his patience and fortitude, has established his right to lead a free people.

CHICAGO NEWS: Everyone who reads the note should bear in mind that the cause represented by the authorities in Washington is not alone the cause of Americans and of all neutrals. It is the cause of civilization. The ruinous doctrine that international law is a mere cloak for power, never chosen to make it had to be challenged in unmistakable terms. The note is admirable in spirit and in substance. The people of the United States stand firmly behind the proposition thus laid down by their government.

BALTIMORE SUN: There is all the red blood in the message that a red-blooded nation can ask. It is the voice of a statesman speaking the words of a great people most anxious not to break the peace but determined not to tolerate further.

BALTIMORE AMERICAN:—It has added nothing to what has been said; and it shows no spirit of trucking. Germany must now either concede the position of this country or stand out-lawed before the world.

KANSAS CITY STAR: President Wilson has said what was in the hearts of his countrymen. He has said it with clarity, with consideration, but with unmistakable directness. His words are

One Month of Right Living

If your body is no longer your obedient servant; if work seems harder than work ought to be; if pleasures have lost zest; if every meal brings its hour of regret afterwards; you ought to know the reason why.

Don't worry about your physical condition; find out about it. There may be nothing the matter but some error of diet, some bad habit of work or exercise which one month of right living would show the way to correct.

At Battle Creek there is a Health Resort where you are taught how to get well and keep well. A complete inventory of your physical resources is taken. Bad habits of eating, working and exercising are corrected, and you make a fair trial, under expert scientific direction, of the plan of daily life best suited to conserve and utilize what physical capital you have. The month of right living proves in many cases that this is much larger than you have supposed.

Full particulars and terms may be had by writing to 405 Administration Building, Battle Creek Sanitarium, Battle Creek, Michigan. A large illustrated book is sent free and fully post-paid upon receipt of your request.

DR. E. E. PRATT WILL VISIT HERE SATURDAY

Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, department of commerce, will stop in Atlanta Saturday on his way to San Francisco, where he is to address the California Bankers' association. While in Atlanta Dr. Pratt will be at the Atlanta branch office of the bureau, Room 521 Postoffice building, and will be pleased to have the manufacturers interested in foreign trade confer with him at that place. Dr. Pratt will be tendered a luncheon Saturday by the chamber of commerce at the Capital City club.

Thousand unday School People From Rockmart and Dallas Here for ay

Armed with large baskets filled with lunch, a thousand Sunday school picnickers from Rockmart and Dallas invaded Grant Park Friday morning. A special train of the Southern railroad left Rockmart early Friday with 750 of the excursionists; 350 more were picked up at Dallas and the merry thousand poured into Atlanta and headed for the lawns and shady spots of Grant park about 7 o'clock.

Rev. C. M. Liphart, M. P. Lane, B. F. Burnett, and R. F. Harris each representing a Rockmart Sunday school, are in charge of the delegation from that SUITS TOTALING $24,500 FILED AGAINST POWER CO.

Four damage suits, aggregating $24,500, were filed against the Georgia Power and Power company in the city court Friday morning.

Callie Davis sued for $10,000 for alleged injuries received April 26, 1915. Frank Arnold sued for $10,000 for alleged injuries received April 13, 1915. Leged injuries received April 17, 1915. Leged injuries received April 21, 1915.

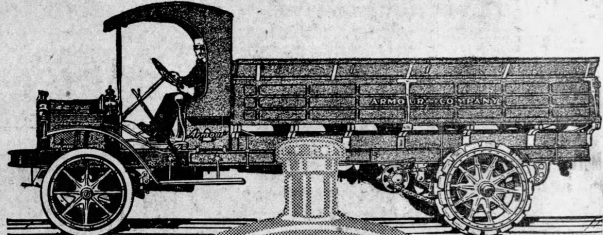

The power company denies the allegations of all four suits. Stewart, Dennis and Whitman filed all the suits; Mundy & Mundy of Rockmart are of counsel in the DeLeon suits.

Mother's Friend
Before Baby Arrives
During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid emotional embroilment in the "Mother's Friend" in which thousands of women have the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is simply used over the skin to render it amenable to the nature's stretching which is necessary. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by all women of happy memory who write from experience.
It is a subject that all honest should be familiar with as "Mother's Friend" has been in use many years, and is recommended by grandmothers who in their early days learned to rely upon this splendid remedy.

NEW YORK EVENING POST: President Wilson has splendidly met the just desires of the American people.
His note to the German government is both in form and substance, all that the crisis demanded. It is studiously courteous, yet the determination behind it is not concealed. We go no further at present than expressing the belief that the case is not entirely hopeless and that the resources of diplomacy are not exhausted.
WASHINGTON STAR: The president's note meets and thoroughly satisfies the national expectation both in its substance and in its form.
The warning notification that the United States will not "omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free expression and enjoyment" is given as impressively by the indirect method that is employed as it would be by a direct threat.
The new world and the old await anxiously the response.

NEWSPAPERS OF U. S. LORD PRAISE OF MR. WILSON'S NOTE

body the idealism of the American people, and the obligation to maintain the principles of high humanity. The president has nobly met the demands of this critical situation.

CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER: Three paths are open to the Kaiser. One removes from Germany the stigma of military murder and cowardly assassinations of honor among the nations. One will definitely remove her voluntarism, withdrawal from the brotherhood of civilization. The third is a crooked path of quibble and procrastination. There is ground for hope that Germany will take the best way.

RICHMOND NEWS LEADER: Germany must now decide whether she will accept the American position as an ultimatum or as an opportunity of receding. If she is determined to continue her submarine warfare, she must favor at least a immediate cessation of diplomatic intercourse with this country. If she is willing to abandon a policy of wholesale murder and cowardly assassinations, she can do so with no loss of prestige by a simple disclaimer.

MILWAUKEE WISCONSIN: The note is not making the firmness of the note, for its purpose is to bring about a irreparable breach of friendly relations. Even half-trigger Americans, as well as all who would have been content with any show of weakness, must recognize the dignity and adequacy in its stand adverse to the use of submarines against merchantmen, the government of Washington will command the support of every neutral nation.

LOS ANGELES TIMES: It is apparent that the feeling and attitude of the president and his advisers is conciliatory. It is the state of mind of the country. But America will insist to the last that there be no more murderous attacks on merchantmen carrying non-combatants, women and children.

SEATTLE TIMES: It is a temperate and meaningful note. Ninety per cent of the American people will be glad to find the president.

SEATTLE POST-INTELLIGENCER: It is no jingo utterance, no mere scrap of paper, but cool, calm, declaration of ultimatum, if you please—of this American people, and in support of it there will be no faltering or division.

INDIANAPOLIS GERMAN TELEGRAPH: The note is a masterpiece of possible for the German government to comply with the president's extravagant demand which amounts to German disarmament on seas.

HOUSTON (Texas) CHRONICLE: It is not Germany's right or England's right, but the right of the world, in this situation, but the right of the United States of America. The president practically asserts that American citizens have the right to engage the high seas, and that they have the right to sail on belligerent merchant vessels. He is right.

MINNEAPOLIS JOURNAL: The statement of President Wilson is beneath the surface. Outwardly it is almost too calm, but upon examination it is seen that the formal civility of expression is in reality a mask for a grave and final proposition to the imperial German government. And then comes the last strong paragraph. Could the president have said more? The American people will stand by these words.

NEW YORK EVENING POST: President Wilson has splendidly met the just desires of the American people. His note to the German government is both in form and substance, all that the crisis demanded. It is studiously courteous, yet the determination behind it is not concealed. We go no further at present than expressing the belief that the case is not entirely hopeless and that the resources of diplomacy are not exhausted.

WASHINGTON STAR: The president's note meets and thoroughly satisfies the national expectation both in its substance and in its form. The warning notification that the United States will not "omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free expression and enjoyment" is given as impressively by the indirect method that is employed as it would be by a direct threat.

THE NEW WORLD AND THE OLD await anxiously the response.

NEW GREENS NOTE

NEW YORK, May 14.—Thousands of persons gathered before dawn today outside the New York newspaper offices waiting for editions containing the text of the American note to Germany. their customary early morning editions, and the special editions carrying it were greeted with intense enthusiasm by the crowds.

GRADY AND TUBERCULOSIS SANITARIUM DISCUSSED

Council Committee on Hospitals and Charities Hears of Needs

The council committee on hospitals and charities, at its first meeting of the year Thursday, heard statements of the needs of the Grady hospital and of the city tuberculosis sanatorium at Battle Hill.

Dr. Claude Smith and J. P. Kennedy told the committee that the rate of infant mortality in Atlanta is showing a material decrease as the result of the preventative work being done by the health department.

The number of patients, they said, at the Battle Hill sanatorium has increased from 80 white people to 115 and from 50 to 65 negroes, yet the death rate at the institution remains the same, showing the excellent results of the work of Edmund W. Martin, and other members of the board of trustees of the Grady hospital, and Dr. W. R. Summerville, superintendent, told in emphatic words of the necessity of relieving the congested conditions at the Grady hospital. The hospital was built to accommodate only 150 patients yet the average daily number in beds in the hospital during April was 272, or an average of nearly 100 patients more than the institution was built to accommodate.

KITCHEN NOT CHANGED.
Dr. Summerville declared the kitchen of the hospital was built when the hospital accommodated only about 25 patients and had only about one-fourth of the present number of employees. It hasn't been changed to any extent with the increased demands on the hospital.

The laundry is doing for $1,800 a year work that it would cost the city $20,000 if the same work was sent to the regular steam laundries, he said, yet that department has received no attention from the authorities. The necessity of a nurses' dormitory was again stressed.

Mr. Martin and Dr. Summerville reviewed the proposal to enlarge the hospital and to have a number of pavilions. Dr. Summerville cited the statistics of municipal hospitals in other cities, showing that in a number of institutions where they do have pavilions that a large per cent. in some instances 50 per cent. of the cost of maintenance of the institution is borne by these wards.

Because of the fact that the kitchen and the laundry are in frame buildings Dr. Summerville said there is great danger of fire. If the hospital does catch fire a loss of life would be almost certain, he said.

"I haven't gone to sleep a single night in six years," said Dr. Summerville, without the presence of the thought of the horrors that would result if the institution caught on fire."

Members of the committee, who had inspected the hospital, endorsed the statements of the superintendent and the representatives of the trustees, and agreed to work for better conditions.

STEAMER CYMRIC'S CABINS PACKED FOR ATLANTIC TRIP

White Star Liner, Bound for Liverpool, Has All Passengers She Can Carry

NEW YORK, May 14.—Seventy-six cabin passengers and 200 in the steerage were booked to sail for Liverpool today on board the White Star line steamship Cymric. Among the cabin passengers were twenty-six women and seven children, while 40 per cent of those in the steerage were women or children. At the offices of the line it was said the Cymric carried as many passengers as she could accommodate. There had been a few cancellations of passages, but these were quickly taken up by other persons on the waiting list.

In the Cymric's cargo was a large consignment of automobile trucks. Agents of Italian steamship lines here announced that instructions had been received by them to refuse passage to women or children of German, Austrian or Turkish birth. Men of those nationalities already had been excluded. Officials of the American line have refused a demand by members of the crew of the steamship St. Louis for $20 extra pay for the trip to Liverpool on which the steamer is to start tomorrow. The officials declared that the risk to the St. Louis of being torpedoed by a German submarine is very small as the ships of that line have carried no contraband since the beginning of the war.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Little Stories For Bedtime

BY THORNTON W. WHEAT

Peter Rabbit could not keep away from the Green Forest. He just had to go back to see those brown babies which he had discovered under a big tree on the bank of the Laughing Brook. Every chance he had he slipped back to watch. He kept as still as still could be and not once did those little brown babies suspect that he was there. Every day he came out to play, but at the least sound the would disappear in that snug home the doorway of which was between the roots of a tree.

After a little Peter discovered that there was a school in the Green Forest. Just as there was a school at Johnny Chuck's home in the Old Orchard, and another where Danny Meadow Mouse had his home on the Green Meadows. You see, wherever there are babies there has to be a school. This is one of the laws of Old Mother Nature. Peter had been quite right when he had guessed that these babies were the children of Little Joe Otter. At first they seemed to do nothing but tumble over each other and play. It was very rough play, the roughest play that Peter had ever seen. He didn't guess that in that play those two brown babies were learning something, but they were. They were learning how to use their legs and teeth and bodies.

At first Peter had seen nothing of Little Joe Otter or Mrs. Joe, but he noticed that at the least rustle of a leaf the two brown babies disappeared in their home, and by this he knew that these babies were the children of Little Joe Otter. At first they seemed to do nothing but tumble over each other and play. It was very rough play, the roughest play that Peter had ever seen. He didn't guess that in that play those two brown babies were learning something, but they were. They were learning how to use their legs and teeth and bodies.

Then one morning he saw Mrs. Joe out with the two babies, and they were having a great frolic. Mrs. Joe would get hold of one end of a stick and the two little Otters would get hold of the other end of the stick and try to pull it away from her. In this way they were learning how to grow strong and to take care of themselves. Then Mrs. Joe took them a little way into the woods. It just happened that Reddy Fox had been along that way the night before. She showed them his tracks and made them smell of them, and when she did this she growled, and thus they knew that Reddy was an enemy, to be watched and to watch out for danger.

One thing puzzled Peter very much. He knew that Little Joe Otter lives in the water most of the time, and that, of course, Mrs. Joe does the same thing. "I wonder why those youngsters are not taught to swim," thought Peter. "I should suppose that a swimming lesson would be one of the very first things they would get."

Peter puzzled over this a great deal as one day followed another and still the Otter babies never once went near the water. They grew fast, and had the very best time ever, but always on the land. In fact, Peter suspected by the way they acted that they didn't like the water any better than he did, and you know he doesn't like it at all.

Mrs. Otter, and sometimes Little Joe, brought them fish to eat, and sometimes their mother took them on little short hunting trips, but always on the land. It was too much for Peter. It seemed to him that those Otter children were being brought up altogether wrong.

These scholarships, representing about $1,000, were given by Washington seminary, Woodberry school, Miss Hanna's and Marietta college, and an expression by Mrs. Robert Blackburn, piano music, Miss Marie Pavestich and the Redford school of piano, and in vocal music, Mrs. W. S. Yates.

Mrs. Coleman presented a program for the pupils of the schools and artists who presented the scholarships to the Atlanta chapter.

The program was as follows: "True Told," recitation by Miss Jewel Young; "May Morn," song by Miss Eloise Young; "Song of the Lark," piano selection, by Miss Ruby Emory.

MUSCOGEE COMES IN WITH HIGHWAY PLEA

Will Send Delegation to Chattanooga Thursday to Present Claim

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) COLUMBUS, Ga., May 14.—And now Columbus, Muscogee, and adjoining counties in the district want to get on the Dixie Highway route. A movement with this end in view was started by the local chamber of commerce today and it is announced that a delegation will be at the Chattanooga meeting next Thursday to present and urge the claims of this section.

The excellent highway just opened between Columbus and Atlanta via Newnan will be held out as an inducement, and it will be pointed out that other lines south of Columbus are in fine shape for such a run.

Several counties in the district have taken up the matter with the local chamber of commerce and a strong effort to get the highway routed through this section will be made.

Dalton to Send Big Delegation to Meeting (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) DALTON, Ga., May 14.—Mayor R. R. Bowen has issued an official proclamation declaring Thursday, May 20, a holiday for Dalton, urging, in the proclamation, that all public spirited citizens of Dalton go to Chattanooga on that day and show the Dixie Highway commissioners that Dalton wants the Johnson-Sharman Highway at the link in the Dixie Highway between Atlanta and Chattanooga. The banks and practically every business house in the city has signed an agreement to close up shop on that day, and let all employees make the trip.

Walker, Chattooga and Floyd Counties Busy (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) LA FAYETTE, Ga., May 14.—More enthusiasm has been shown in the three counties of Walker, Chattooga and Floyd over the routing of the Dixie highway, than has been evidenced over any other single project in many years. Walker has a government pike from Chattanooga to LaFayette in specified condition and maintained by the National government. The convict gang, which is just completing a stretch of road from LaFayette to the Chattooga line, has been shifted this week to the road leading directly to the Chattooga line. Chattooga county has several miles of good road already constructed and has the finest and largest amount of splendid road material of any county in the state. Floyd has thirty-five miles of excellent pike and proposes

BARNES EXPLAINS POSITION ON DIRECT PRIMARY LAW

Says Opposite Party Could Injure Any Man It Desired To

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 14.—William Barnes, continuing today his testimony in his libel suit against Theodore Roosevelt, contradicted Loyal V. Franco, a witness for Colonel Roosevelt, who quoted Barnes as saying he could vote the ticket of the Democratic party in Republican primaries and so disgust the people that they would demand the repeal of a primary law.

"What I said to Mr. Franco," asserted Barnes, "was that I was against the primary law as it then stood. I said that the opposite party could injure any man in the primaries if they desired to do so."

"Did you say the system of direct primaries was subversive to party interests?"

"It couldn't be."

WOODWARD SAYS PEOPLE
APPROVE WILSON'S NOTE

'It Breathes Sentiment of American People Generally,' Declares Mayor

Mayor Woodward expressed himself Friday as being in hearty accord with the note of President Wilson to the German government.

"In my opinion the president's note simply and properly meets the situation," said the mayor, "and I feel sure it breathes the sentiment of the American people generally. Should Germany fail to meet the very reasonable and righteous demands made upon her by this country then the people of the United States will, I am sure support the president in either one or both of the two drastic courses open to this government, namely, the breaking off of diplomatic relations with Germany

JURY WILL PASS UPON

Appellate Division of N. Y. Supreme Court Decides Not to Interfere

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 14.—The appellate division of the supreme court decided today that it would not interfere with the plan to have Harry K. Thaw's mental status passed before a jury for determination.

The court dismissed the prohibitory writ which, if sustained, would have enjoined the supreme court from submitting the case to a jury next Monday.
